

Why Join?

To make your community safer

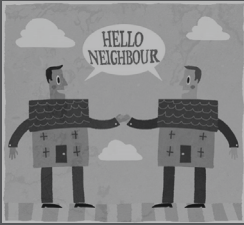

To learn new skills

To have fun!

To get to know your neighbours

To hold the police to account

To help rebuild community spirit

To gain experience in volunteering

“I joined because I wanted to know what kind of area my kids were growing up in and to help make it a safer place for them”

Annie, 39

“I joined because I wanted to learn how to run a local group and all the skills that go with that. It has really boosted my CV, and it feels great to know my neighbours”

David, 33
